USF UNIVERSITY of SAN FRANCISCO
School of Law

Awards

The Center for Law and Global Justice received a $750,000 grant from the U.S. State Department to combat human trafficking in Haiti. Professor Dolores Donovan is serving as technical director of the new program titled "Students Speak Against Trafficking," which will offer human rights courses focused on preventing child trafficking at several Haitian law schools in partnership with the State University of Haiti.

Law Review and Journal Articles

Professor Bill Ong Hing co-authored "The Rise and Fall of Employer Sanctions," published in the Fordham Urban Law Journal.

Book Contributions

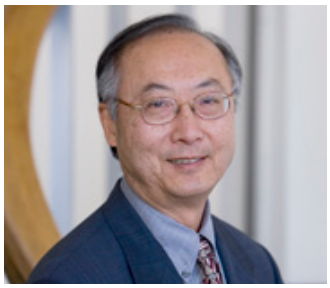
Professor Julie Nice is the author of "Poverty as an Everyday State of Exception," in Accumulating Insecurity: Violence and Dispossession in the Making of Everyday Life (University of Georgia Press, 2011).

Adjunct Professor Mark Tuft co-authored "A Fresh Look at Ethical Obligations for Environmental Lawyers" in the Practising Law Institute's Real Estate Law and Practice Course Handbook Series.

Presentations and Lectures

Professors John Adler and Reza Dibadj moderated panels at the University of San Francisco Law Review symposium on corporate finance.

Professor Susan Freiwald participated in the panel "The Implications of DNT" at the "Browser Privacy Mechanisms Roundtable," organized by the UC Berkeley Center for Law and Technology.



Professor Bill Ong Hing presented "The DREAM Act—The Evolution of a Movement" at the UC Irvine School of Law symposium "Persistent Puzzles in Immigration Law." He also participated in panels at the Second Annual University of California International Migration Conference and the Bay Area Asian and Pacific American Law Student Association Annual Meeting.

Associate Professor Richard Leo presented "Three Prongs of the Confession Problem: Issues and Proposed Solutions" at a University of Washington School of Law faculty colloquium in January.

Professor Rhonda Magee presented "Spiritualizing Legal Education" at a meeting of the Project for the Integration of Spirituality, Law, and Politics.

Professor Jesse Markham Jr. presented during the seminar "International Competition Law Regime" at the George Washington University Law School.

At the McCarthy Institute for Intellectual Property and Technology Law and Microsoft Corporation symposium "Trademark Law and its Challenges in 2011," Professor David Franklyn presented on trademarks as search engine keywords and Senior Professor J. Thomas McCarthy delivered the concluding keynote address.

Professor Julie Nice presented on social welfare rights at the Global Poverty Panel and Hunger Banquet at the USF School of Law. She also presented "Beyond Equality" at the West Coast Law and Society Retreat at Southwestern Law School.

Professional and Public Service

Professor Reza Dibadj served as faculty advisor to the University of San Francisco Law Review symposium "Democracy, Inc? Citizens United, Corporate Expenditures and the Future of Campaign Finance Law."

Professor David Franklyn helped organize the McCarthy Institute for Intellectual Property and Technology Law symposium "Trademark Law and its Challenges in 2011," co-sponsored by the Microsoft Corporation.

Professor Bill Ong Hing served as a jurist for a public hearing titled "A People's Hearing on Racism and Police Violence" at Edna Brewer School in Oakland, Calif.

Professor Alice Kaswan provided comments on an amicus brief for Connecticut v. AEP, a climate nuisance case before the United States Supreme Court.

SSRN Downloads

Professor Peter Jan Honigsberg's paper "Conflict of Interest that Led to the Gulf Oil Disaster" has been included on SSRN's top ten download list for ERN: Public Administration.

Professor Julie Nice's paper "Poverty as an Everyday State of Exception" has been included on SSRN's top ten download lists for Economic Inequality and the Law eJournal, LSN: Poverty Law, and PSN: Social Welfare Policy.

Media

Dean Jeffrey Brand is quoted in an ABA Journal article on law school clinical courses.

Professor Joshua Davis is quoted in the San Francisco Examiner article "San Bruno Blast Lawsuits Headed into Courtroom."

Professor Susan Freiwald is featured in the Bloomberg article "WikiLeaks Backers 'Anonymous' to be Probed by U.S. Grand Jury." She also participated in a KZYX radio broadcast on communications privacy.

Professor Bill Ong Hing is quoted in the Daily Journal article "Tools for Effective Immigration Reform." He authored The Huffington Post blog article "Mexico's Economy is the Problem that Anti-Immigration Laws Won't Solve" and is featured in the You Are Here (WERS) radio broadcast "Illegal Immigration."

Associate Professor Richard Leo is quoted in the Detroit Free Press article "U-M Law Clinic: Records Prove Convicted Killer Mark Craighead is Innocent After All."

Professor Rhonda Magee is featured in the article "When Lawyers Attack: Behave Yourself!" in Plaintiff magazine.

Professor Julie Nice was interviewed by KCBS and KNX radio stations on the California Supreme Court and the question of legal standing for Proposition 8 supporters.

Professor Robert Talbot is quoted in the Internet Law & Strategy article "John Does Under Fire for File Sharing."