Arrupe Immersion
Program Goals and Outcomes

I. Program Goal:
After attending an Arrupe Immersion program participants will be able to incorporate and integrate theories learned in the classroom with the lived experience of a marginalized community.

II. Learning Outcomes:
- Articulate global socio, political, and economic differences.
- Identify and distinguish concrete ways that service agencies can respond to marginalized communities.
- Advocate for globally responsible decision-making and alternative business opportunities in the work place.

III. Assessment Methods:
- University Ministry evaluation tool and assessment form. (see evaluation tool)
- Rubrics (attached)

IV. Time Frame:
Participants will fill out evaluation tool after each Arrupe Immersion trip
Assessment form will be completed by Associate Director of Social Justice following each Arrupe Immersion trip.
Assessments will be reviewed by University Ministry staff at the end of each semester.

V. Who Will Do the Assessment:
University Ministry staff facilitated by the Associate Director of Social Justice.

VI. How data will be used to improve or revise program:
Feedback on each Arrupe Immersion program will be reviewed. Changes, revisions, and further development of the Arrupe Immersion Program will take place as a result of these findings.

Retreat Program
Program Goals and Outcomes

I. Program Goal:
After attending a University Ministry retreat participants can expect to be familiar with Ignatian Spirituality and draw from their experience of spiritual reflection.

II. Learning Outcomes:

- Identify ways to infuse Ignatian Spirituality in ones life
- Develop opportunities for daily spiritual reflection

III. Assessment Methods:
University Ministry evaluation tool and assessment form.

IV. Time Frame:
Participants will fill out evaluation tool after each retreat
Assessment form will be completed by Associate Director of Retreats following each retreat.
Assessments will be reviewed by University Ministry staff at the end of each semester.

V. Who Will Do the Assessment:
University Ministry staff facilitated by the Associate Director of Retreats.

VI. How data will be used to improve or revise program:
Feedback on each retreat will be reviewed. Changes, revisions, and further development of retreat program will take place as a result of these findings.