

CHENG & TSUI COMPANY

“Bringing Asia to the World”™

Offering High-Quality Materials Relating to China, Japan, Korea, and Southeast Asia

SPECIAL OFFER FOR ROBO-SENSEI CUSTOMERS!

CHENG & TSUI COMPANY is pleased to offer Robo-Sensei customers 15% off your next purchase of Cheng & Tsui books. To receive your discount, enter CODE 4005 in the comment box of the online shopping checkout. Offer good for one purchase only. Please visit www.cheng-tsui.com to browse our vast catalog of books related to Asian languages, literature, and culture. Japanese language learning series include:

Breeze into Japanese by Kazuko Imaeda

A book and three (3) audio CD set flexible for either self-study or classroom use, Breeze into Japanese guides beginning students toward oral fluency in Japanese. Veteran teacher Kazuko Imaeda uses a simple, logical, and fun approach to introduce authentic language and grammar appropriate for practical, everyday dialogue. Instead of rushing students into immediately learning a foreign script, Breeze into Japanese teaches the language using romaji, a romanized phonetic system. Hiragana and katakana can be learned with optional exercises throughout, and in three independent chapters on reading. Students will be surprised at how easy it is to learn Japanese by following the step-by-step approach in these 26 lessons! Learn more.

Adventures in Japanese by Hiromi Peterson et al.

This user-friendly, comprehensive method of learning Japanese is the favorite of junior and senior high school systems across the U.S.! It was users of the Adventures in Japanese series who won first prize at the 2003 National Japan Bowl, a nationwide high school student competition on Japanese language and culture. The AIJ series currently includes four levels with textbooks, workbooks, a hiragana & katakana workbook with flashcards, audio CDs, and teacher's handbooks. Learn more.

Obentoo by Peter Williams et al.

Obentoo offers an exciting, culturally based approach to Japanese language study. Discover how this innovative course for junior high learners is setting new standards for the teaching of Japanese. Its clear, colorful, well-structured layout introduces students to both language and culture through lively and authentic presentation. This course uses a guided and integrated approach to the introduction of script. The Obentoo series is widely adaptable, and contains textbooks, workbooks, audio materials, and a wealth of teacher support material. Learn more.

Mirai by Meg Evans et al.

Mirai is a full-color, imaginative, integrated Japanese junior through senior high course that uses a cutting-edge visual approach to teach language concepts. Engaging Japanese manga characters introduce natural Japanese speech. This fun and stylish approach will appeal to both students and teachers. It features clear explanations of language structures, idiomatic expressions and appropriate language use. Contemporary photos and maps appear throughout the series. The Mirai series currently includes six levels with course books, audio materials, language activity books, and teacher's books. Learn more.

Tsumiki by Margaret Lee

Tsumiki helps junior high school students build a sound Japanese foundation and reach great heights in their language learning. The course is developed around the experiences of two students, Andrew and Mariana, who have been learning Japanese in preparation for a visit to Japan. Tsumiki means “building blocks,” and it is through building blocks that the series is constructed, using a logical sequence of sentence patterns that build on knowledge from previous patterns, with activities that prepare students for the next pattern. The Tsumiki series includes two levels with student books, workbooks, teacher resource books, and audio CDs. Learn more. www.cheng-tsui.com • service@cheng-tsui.com

Tel: (617) 988-2401 • Toll-free: (800) 554-1963 • Fax: (617) 426-3669 • 25 West Street • Boston, MA 02111-1213 USA