

School of Law

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, & MEDIA

Awards

Professor Emeritus Jay Folberg was presented with the Lifetime Achievement Award from the American College of Civil Trial Mediators.

Professor Peter Jan Honigsberg's Witness to Guantanamo project was awarded a grant from the Roddick Foundation.

Books

E.L. Wiegand Distinguished Professor in Tax Daniel Lathrope published the 2011 supplement to his book Alternative Minimum Tax (Warren, Gorham and Lamont/RIA, 1994; supplements 1995–2011).

Philip and Muriel Barnett Professor of Trial Advocacy Steven Shatz published the third edition of his book Criminal Law: Cases and Problems (Lexis, First Edition 1999, Second Edition 2004, Third Edition 2011).

Law Review and Journal Articles

Professor Reza Dibadj authored "Citizens United as Corporate Law Narrative," published in the Chapman University School of Law's Nexus Journal.

Book Contributions

Adjunct Professor Robert Brownstone co-authored the chapter "Privacy Litigation" in Data Security and Privacy Law (Thomson Reuters, 2011).

Other Publications

Professor Connie de la Vega co-authored the report "Holding Businesses Accountable for Human Rights Violations: Recent Developments and Next Steps," published by Dialogue on Globalization. The report was co-authored with Amol Mehra '09 and Alexandra Wong '10.

Director of the Dorraine Zief Law Library Ronald Wheeler authored "Leadership as a Product of Hard Work and Passion" published by the American Association of Law Libraries in the AALL Spectrum.

Presentations and Lectures

Technical Services Librarian Shannon Burchard coordinated and moderated the panel "Sailing the High Seas: Maritime Research Practice and

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, & MEDIA

Thoughts” at the annual meeting of the American Association of Law Libraries.

Professor Tristin Green presented on the future of systemic disparate treatment law at the Association of American Law Schools’ 2011 Workshop on Women Rethinking Equality in June.

Professor Bill Ong Hing was a panelist at the UC Haas School of Business Board Diversity Conference and at the Asian Pacific American Biennial Convention.

Associate Professor Richard Leo presented “Police Interrogation Methods and False Confessions” at the New York State Justice Task Force on Wrongful Convictions in June.

Professor Rhonda Magee presented “A Contemplative Humanity Consciousness Approach” and “Contemplative Contributions to Integrative Education” at the Association for Contemplative Mind in Higher Education’s Regional Conference. She also presented at the 32nd International Congress on Law and Mental Health in Berlin, Germany, and at the Academic Support Program orientation at the USF School of Law.

Professional and Public Service

Professor Peter Jan Honigsberg’s Witness to Guantanamo project interviewed Estela Lebron, the mother of Jose Padilla, an American citizen who was tortured and held in isolation in a South Carolina naval brig for nearly four years.

Professor Alice Kaswan commented on alternatives to a cap-and-trade program to the California Air Resources Board.

Media

Associate Dean for Faculty Scholarship Joshua Davis was quoted in the article “PG&E Seeks to Clarify Legal Position in San Bruno Pipeline Case,” published in the San Jose Mercury News, Contra Costa Times, and other papers.

Professor Bill Ong Hing authored “Control the Border: Invest in Mexico,” published on The Huffington Post.

Associate Professor Richard Leo was featured in The Tampa Tribune article “Breaking the Rules of Interrogation,” and in a four-part series in The Philadelphia Inquirer on Daniel Montgomery, a man sentenced to prison for murder and arson who claims his innocence.