

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, & MEDIA

Awards

Professor Peter Jan Honigsberg's Witness to Guantanamo Project has been awarded approximately $300,000 over three years by the Sigrid Rausing Trust.

Books

E.L. Wiegand Distinguished Professor in Tax Daniel Lathrope authored the updated editions of Selected Federal Taxation Statutes and Regulations and Selected Sections on United States International Taxation. He also co-authored the recently published Fundamentals of Federal Income Taxation.

Law Review and Journal Articles

Professor Bruce Price authored the Southern University Law Review article "Halting, Altering, and Agreeing," in which he argues that the Chapter 11 bankruptcy process represents a dispute transformation mechanism.

Presentations and Lectures

Dean Jeffrey Brand moderated the Commonwealth Club of California event "Susan N. Herman, ACLU President: The War On Terror and the Erosion of Democracy."

Professor Joshua Davis moderated the USF School of Law event "A Conversation with Expert Trial Lawyers: How to Live a Good and Successful Life as an Attorney," presented by the Center for Law and Ethics and the student chapter of the San Francisco Trial Lawyer's Association.

Professor Connie de la Vega presented "The Implications, Impacts, and Constitutionality of Juvenile life Sentences" at the West Coast Conference on Progressive Lawyering at Stanford Law School.

Professor Susan Freiwald presented "Warshak in the Workplace" at the University of Wisconsin Law School's "The Constitutionalization of Labor and Employment Law."

Professor Tristin Green participated in the panel "Where Do 'We' Go from Here? The Implications of Wal-Mart v. Dukes" at a USF School of Law event, co-sponsored by the USF chapter of the American

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, & MEDIA

Constitution Society, Labor and Employment Law Student Association, and the Business Law Association.

Professor Bill Ong Hing moderated the USF School of Law Office of Career Planning event “The Dream Act Movement.”

Associate Professor Richard Leo presented “False Confessions: Why Innocent People Confess” at a Northern California Innocence Project event at Santa Clara University.

Professor Rhonda Magee participated in the University of San Francisco Leo T. McCarthy Center for Public Service and the Common Good event “The State of Black San Francisco.”

Professor Maya Manian presented “Functional Parenting and Dysfunctional Abortion Policy: Reforming Parental Involvement Legislation” at the Center for Reproductive Rights in New York City.

Senior Professor J. Thomas McCarthy served on the “IP Hot Topics and Burning Issues” panel at the International Trademark Associations Advanced Trademark Symposium in Washington, D.C.

Herbst Foundation Professor of Law Julie Nice delivered the keynote address “The Multiplier Effect of Public Interest Law Teaching and Lawyering” at the Bluhm Legal Clinic Open House during Northwestern University’s 2011 Alumni Community Day. She also presented “The Ideology of Responsible Procreation: Producing LGBT Identity” at the Loyola Law School symposium “LGBT Identity and the Law.”

Professor Maria Ontiveros participated in a panel on the 13th Amendment at the University of Wisconsin Law School symposium “The Constitutionalization of Labor and Employment Law.”

Center for Law and Global Justice Assistant Director for Haiti Programs Nicole Phillips presented “Haiti’s Housing Crisis Under the New Martelly Administration: What the International Community Must Do to Help” at a congressional briefing in Washington, D.C. She also presented before the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights about the lack of progress by the international community and the Haitian government in implementing a post-earthquake housing plan.

Director of the Dorraine Zief Law Library Ronald Wheeler presented “Animal Therapy: An Approach to Relieve the Stress of Law School Exams” at the Northern California Association of Law Libraries Business Meeting “The Emerging Field of Animal Law.”

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, & MEDIA

Professional and Public Service

Technical Services Librarian Shannon Burchard has been appointed to the American Association of Law Library's Price Index for Legal Publications Committee.

Professor Susan Freiwald facilitated a meeting between Department of Commerce General Counsel Cameron Kerry and privacy-stakeholders from technology companies, activist groups, state government, and legal academia to discuss the Department of Commerce report "Commercial Data Privacy and Innovation in the Internet Economy."

Professor Bill Ong Hing worked with Legal Services for Children to successfully terminate the deportation proceedings of a young man in San Francisco. He was appointed to the Immigration Project Working Group of the Administrative Conference of the United States. The conference is studying how U.S. immigration adjudication removal procedures could be improved. Hing was also selected for the national advisory committee of the Black Alliance for Just Immigration.

Associate Professor Richard Leo has been elected to the American Law Institute.

Professor Rhonda Magee participated in the Cutting Edge Law's Leadership Summit for Legal Changemakers.

Professor Maya Manian is a 2011–2012 visiting scholar at the Center for Reproductive Rights in New York City.

SSRN Downloads

Marshall P. Madison Professor of Law Jesse Markham Jr.'s article "Sailing a Sea of Doubt: A Critique of the Rule of Reason in U.S. Antitrust Law" is included on SSRN's top ten download list for the Antitrust: Antitrust Law & Policy eJournal and LSN: Antitrust.

Associate Professor Richard Leo's article "Interrogation-Related Regulatory Decline: Ego-Depletion, Failure of Self-Regulation, and the Decision to Confess" has been included on SSRN's top ten download list for the Evidence & Evidentiary Procedure eJournal.

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, & MEDIA

Media

Professor Susan Freiwald was quoted in the Al Jazeera article "U.S. Sweeps Nets Private Email Addresses." She was also featured in an article on the Electronic Communications Privacy Act on Death and Taxes.

Associate Professor Richard Leo was featured in the Chicago Tribune article "With Trial Beginning Monday, Experts Question Interrogation of Day Care Worker."

Professor Rhonda Magee participated in the KQED News broadcast "SF Symposium Aims to Tackle Issues of Black Flight."

Professor Richard Sakai was featured in the BASF Bulletin story "Help Inspire College Students to Make Law School a Destination."