Application for the Determination of Moral Character

A positive moral character determination is a prerequisite to being admitted to the bar and practicing law in California. The filing of the moral character application begins the process of character investigation which generally takes eight to ten months, but could possibly take longer.

When	Now. (Most students file during their 2 nd year of law school. The committee recommends that applicants file at least 8-10 months prior to date you expect to practice law).
Cost	$476
Website:	http://www.calbarxap.com/Applications/CalBar/California_Bar_Moral_Character/default.asp

Note: The Application for the Determination of Moral Character must be filed within 90 days of obtaining Live Scan Fingerprinting otherwise the fingerprinting will be considered invalid. Please be aware that the vendor conducting the fingerprinting only retains the records for 90 days.

Live Scan Fingerprinting:

The California Bar also requires that all applicants to the practice of law be fingerprinted. Applicants are required to submit fingerprints through the Live Scan system with the application for Moral Character Determination.

When	At USF: October 11, 12 & 13 th from 10am-6:20pm in KN 105
Cost	$21 at USF

In addition, a list of agencies providing the Live Scan fingerprinting service can be found at the California Attorney General - Department of Justice website:
<http://www.ag.ca.gov/fingerprints/publications/contact.php>

NOTE: The Office of Admissions of the California Bar strongly advises that applicants file for the Determination of Moral Character within 90 day of fingerprinting. Please be aware that the vendor conducting the fingerprinting only retains the records for 90 days.

☐ Multi-state Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE):

This examination is administered by the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) and is one of the requirements for admission to practice law in California (and in all but 3 of the other U.S. jurisdictions). The next three test dates are November 5, 2011, March 17, 2012, and August 10, 2012. The late registration deadline for the November MPRE is October 6, 2011.

NOTE: It is necessary that you request that National Conference of Bar Examiners report your score to the California Committee of Bar Examiners.

Exam Date	November 5, 2011

The examination application will ask for your student ID number in place of your social security number. This is the 8 digit number issued to you by the University of San Francisco when you were first admitted to the law school, otherwise known as the USFID. This number appears on the following documents which you have received: programs notices, exam number mailers, final grade reports, and official transcripts. Please note that this number is not printed on your university issued ID card (OneCard). If you do not have a record of this ID number you may obtain it from USFConnect by clicking on the link in the "Secure Access Login" box and following the instructions. You may also obtain the USFID from the Law Registrar's office, in person only, during normal business hours. Presentation of a photo ID is required.

☐ Laptop Certification:

If you plan to use a computer for the essay portion of the exam you must apply for laptop certification. There are a number of steps that you will have to follow in order to register with the exam software. The link below is to the July 2011 bulletin. There will be an updated bulletin for laptop users that will post for the July 2012 exam. Keep your eyes out when you complete your bar examination application in the spring.

When	When Registering for the Bar Examination
Cost	$132 ($15 late fee, requested after submitting application)
Website	http://ls.calbar.ca.gov/Certification/ExamInformation/Laptopcomputers.aspx

☐ Testing Accommodations for the Bar Examination:

Students who have received examination accommodations while attending law school must petition the Committee of Bar Examiners to receive accommodations for the Bar Examination. Students may petition the Bar any time after having registered with the Bar, and the Committee of Bar Examiners strongly encourages students to file their second year or the beginning of their third year and no later than four months prior to the exam that you wish to take. Petitions generally take, anywhere from 30 days to six months to review and approve, and may take longer if additional documentation is required. The application for accommodations must be received no later than the final filing deadline for testing accommodation petitions, although earlier filing is STRONGLY encouraged.

When Now, if applicable. (2nd year is strongly encouraged but no later than four months prior to the exam that you wish to take).
