

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO
SCHOOL OF LAW

Keta Taylor Colby Public Interest Law Program
Loan Repayment Assistance Program Application

Application Deadline: October 5, 2012 Funding Period: January 1 - December 31, 2013

Please review the "Loan Repayment Assistance Program Guidelines" for eligibility requirements prior to completing this application. Eligibility for Program participation is based on six factors:

- date of Juris Doctor degree
- employment in a qualifying public interest position
- total projected annual income
- monthly repayment schedule of outstanding educational debt
- length of time in the Program
- available Program funds

You must provide a brief statement (approximately 250-500 words) articulating why you should receive an LRAP loan, how your work benefits the public interest, and how your work meets the definition of public interest set forth in the LRAP Guidelines.

Additional information is requested below. Only complete and timely applications, including supporting documentation, will be considered by the Social Justice Committee. Since this application, in most instances, requests an estimate of prospective income and loan payments, you will be required to provide subsequent verification of income and loan payments in December that will be used to finalize your LRAP funding award.
