

New F&A and Fringe Benefit Rate Guidance:

The new F&A rate for on campus programs is 65% of salaries and wages. This is 6.8% up from the previous rate of 58.2%.

The new F&A rate for off campus programs is 26.1% of salaries and wages. This is 2.5% up from the previous rate of 23.6%.

The new Federal fringe rate charged for full time employees on federal grants and contracts is 32.8%. This is 2.3% up from the previous rate of 30.5%

The new Federal fringe rate charged for part time employees on federal grants and contracts is 10%. This is .5% up from the previous rate of 9.5%

These new rates are effective 6/1/2007 to 5/31/2011.

The existing rates being used in currently funded sponsored projects will not change until the project goes in for a competitive renewal, i.e., new funding is requested.

New awards from proposals currently under review will be accepted at the rates submitted throughout the life of the project until new funding is requested.

Federal contracts that are incrementally funded (allocated on a yearly basis) will continue with the current rate until the project reaches the total amount funded by the original contract.
