Application for Graduate Admission to the Master of Arts in International and Development Economics

Who May Apply

Applicants must hold a Bachelor's degree, preferably in Economics. Students from other fields are welcome to apply, but must have coursework in calculus, statistics, and introductory economics.

Please Note: The Department of Economics offers two graduate programs — the M.A. in Economics and the M.A. in International and Development Economics. Applicants can apply to only one of these programs.

Length of Program

The program is two years for full-time students, and three to four years for part-time students.

GRE Scores

The GRE is not required. Applicants with non-Economics backgrounds may want to submit the GRE score if it will strengthen your application. The USF school code for GRE is 6996 or 4850.

Application Dates

The priority deadline is March 1 for fall (August) admission. Applications may be considered on a space-available basis until May 1. For priority consideration for admission and scholarships, applicants are encouraged to submit all application items to USF several weeks before the application date of March 1.

Application Items

FIRST STEP: Application Form and Fee

Submit the form and application fee ($55; payable to the University of San Francisco) online at www.usfca.edu/grad/applyonline or by mail. Submit this form first in the application process.

Send all application items to the Office of Graduate Programs. Do not send application items to the Department of Economics.

Please ensure that the full name on your application form and each application item are identical. If your names differ in any way, include a note with your application items so that the Office of Graduate Programs can match your items to your application file. Also, include the name of your graduate program on each application item and your birthdate.

Transcripts

Submit one official transcript (academic record) from each university, college (university-level), or community college that you have attended. International students also need to submit a copy of the transcript and diploma (document that indicates that a Bachelor's Degree has been completed) in the original language and in English translation.

Letters of Recommendation

Academic and/or professional letters are required from two individuals who can attest to your competence and ability to succeed in the program.

Statement of Purpose

A 2- to 3-page typewritten, double-spaced statement of purpose that describes your background, reasons for applying to the M.A. in International and Development Economics program, and your educational and career goals.

Résumé

Submit an updated résumé that describes your work experience.

International Students

(Not a Citizen or Permanent Resident of the U.S.)

Visit www.usfca.edu/asinternational for important information for international applicants, including test score policies. Non-immigrant students must include a non-U.S. mailing address. In addition to the application items listed above, international students need to submit the following:

English Language Exams

Submit official TOEFL, IELTS or PTE exam scores. A minimum TOEFL of 79 (iBT), 550 (PBT), or minimum IELTS score of 6.5 is required. Subsection scores on TOEFL exams must be 17 or higher for any section – listening, reading, speaking and writing.

Do not submit an application if you did not achieve these minimums. Students with TOEFL scores below 100 or IELTS below 7.0 must take an ESL course at USF in the first semester of graduate studies. The USF school code for TOEFL is 6996 or 4850.

Certification of Finances

(Required in Application—Please Read Carefully)

International applicants who require an F-1 student visa must verify that they (or sponsors) can fund their tuition and living expenses during studies in the U.S. This requires that the Certification of Finances form be completed and submitted along with bank statements to USF. Funds required for each program are indicated on the Certification form.

Note: If you do not submit a completed Certification of Finances form, then your application will not be considered for admission.

Passport Photo Page

You can scan and upload a copy of your passport photo and personal information page as you apply online, or mail a copy with your other application items.

Financial Assistance

A limited number of merit scholarships that partially cover tuition are offered to applicants. Both U.S. and international applicants are considered for this financial assistance. There is no separate application for this financial assistance.

U.S. citizens and permanent residents are eligible to apply for low-interest loans offered by the U.S. federal student loan program. For information visit www.fafsa.ed.gov or contact USF's OneStop Office at (415) 422-2020 or onestop@usfca.edu. The USF school code for FAFSA is 001325. Submit your FAFSA as early as possible, even before your admission decision is made.

Submit All Application Items to:

University of San Francisco
College of Arts and Sciences
Office of Graduate Programs
2130 Fulton Street, HR 240
San Francisco, CA 94117

Once your application form is processed by the Office of Graduate Programs, a USF ID number and password will be emailed to you so that you may check your application status online. You can also contact the Office of Graduate Programs at 415.422.5101.

Some application documents (statement of purpose, resume, passport photo page, letters of recommendation, GRE test score report) can be scanned/emailed as a PDF (jpgs are not accepted) to asapplication@usfca.edu. In your email subject heading, please include the type of document you are sending, such as "Résumé" or "Statement of Purpose" and include your full application name and graduate program in your email.

Scans of bank statements, Certification of Finance, transcripts or English language test scores are not accepted by email. These original documents must be mailed.
