

One thing that I'm going to take away is just working with all sorts of different kids from different backgrounds, different learning styles.

0:00

I think that was my favorite part. Just getting to create connections with, with the kids in my classrooms, and get to know how they learn and what are the things that excite them in the classroom.

0:09

0:15