BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN MANAGEMENT
Complete your degree in a part-time program designed for working professionals.

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO
School of Management
For working professionals seeking to complete their bachelor’s degrees, the University of San Francisco offers a Bachelor of Science in Management (BSM). Students learn theory and best practices through coursework and gain effective leadership skills for management within all sectors of organizational life.

CONVENIENT SCHEDULE AND AN ACCELERATED TIMELINE
You can earn your BSM in as few as 23 months with classes that typically meet one evening per week and every other Saturday.

CENTRALLY LOCATED CAMPUSES
The BSM program is offered at our downtown San Francisco location, as well as in the East Bay at our Pleasanton location.

CURRICULUM COVERING ESSENTIAL BUSINESS PRINCIPLES
You’ll gain knowledge, team-building skills, and hands-on project experience with courses in accounting, finance, organizational behavior, technology, marketing, and business strategy.

EARN UNIVERSITY CREDITS FOR LIFE EXPERIENCES
With our Interdisciplinary Studies Assessment (ISA) Essay Program, you can receive classroom credit for your career experiences, allowing you to earn up to 21 credits for learning acquired outside the traditional classroom. You’ll present your experiences through personal essays, in conjunction with a writing course.

Whether you have a family or not, whether you have a full-time or part-time career, the BSM program is built for people who want to change the world, who want to be part of making something bigger than themselves.”

ADMISSION
› The BSM requires a minimum of 60 transferable credits prior to enrollment.
› Students must be in good academic standing at the last institution attended. Good standing is defined as a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher, including at least a 2.0 GPA in the most recent semester of college coursework completed.
› Official college transcripts from all previous institutions are required.

Federal or state grants and loans are also available to applicants with demonstrated need. Scholarships are available to full-time public servants or those who hold a position in civic leadership.
