Welcome to Spring Semester! The School of Management was still humming over the break, and we're excited to share what's been happening with you. The highlights include Analytics students' 100% placement rate, Prof. Kane on becoming a social entrepreneur, a visit from the Turkish Ambassador, and much more.

Net Impact Gold Chapter at USF Growing For Good

MBA students from the USF Net Impact Gold Chapter work to transform sustainability in the workplace.

Turkish Ambassador Discusses International Cooperation at USF
Serdar Kılıç spoke to a panel of USF faculty about the growing importance of an international unified community.

Anyone Can Become a Social Entrepreneur

Social engagement and responsibility. That’s what we should be teaching our MBA students, says Professor Kane. But how?

Innovative USF Students Transition Easily into Workforce

"The 2014 graduating class of the Master of Science in Analytics program reaches 100% employment."

Professor Kimberly Connor featured in Huffington Post
Professor Connor uses great literature, including slave narratives, to teach empathy to future public servants.
